

Franklin Thompson

Danny is a retired Truck Company Captain, with over 28 years of operational experience. He has previously worked as a Law Enforcement officer and as a Paramedic. He currently is the Project Manager for the South Carolina Traffic Incident Management contract for SCDOT. He has trained over 1000 responders in Traffic Incident Management across the country.