

Chad Beam

Chad Beam grew up in the Fire Service and began his career in 2005 as a fulltime EMT and volunteer Firefighter. Chad progressed in EMS and the Fire Service, gaining his Paramedic in 2008 and eventually moving from full time EMS to the Fire Service full time. Chad has served in management from Anderson University in 2017 and his Master of Public Administration with a concentration in Emergency Management from Clemson University in May of 2019. Chad currently serves as the Branch Chief for the SC Emergency Response Task Force within the SC State Fire Marshal's Office. Chad is married to his wife Brooke and has two beautiful daughters (Carleigh and Ellie Reames).