

Kevin Henson

Kevin Henson has more than 17 years of Fire/EMS experience and has held various positions within the fire and emergency services field. He is an administrative captain with the Greenville City (SC) Fire Department and serves as their accreditation and compliance manager. He serves as a Peer Assessor for the Commission on Fire Accreditation International. He is a member of the South Carolina State Firefighters' Association Strategic Planning Committee and is an active member of the South Carolina Fire Improvement Group. He holds a Bachelor of Science in Fire Administration from Waldorf University, and is a current student in the National Fire Academy's Executive Fire Officer Program.