

Brad Kavetski

Brad Kavetski is a 12-year fire service veteran who serves as a career Fire Captain with Horry County (SC) Fire Rescue & EMS Department. He is a founding member of the Firefighter Cancer Support Network-South Carolina Chapter and currently serves as the State Director. Captain Kavetski is a nationally registered paramedic and obtained his associate's degree in Emergency Medical Services from Pennsylvania College of Technology and a bachelor's degree in Fire Service Management from American Military University. Captain Kavetski also has been awarded Fire Officer Designation from the Commission on Professional Credentialing and recently completed his first year of the National Fire Academy's Managing Officer Program.