

Heath Haywood

HD Haywood and instructor cadre bring over 100 years of extrication experience to the field. That paired with a direct hand on teaching style ensures that students walk away with the confidence needed to mitigate some of the most challenging extrication scenarios they could ever imagine. This group focuses on student led evolutions with instructors to provide guidance and assistance. All while operating in a setting of “controlled chaos”.